

Joint Account Application Form

First NZ Capital Securities Limited (FNZC) is the provider of the online share and bond trading service, known as Direct Broking.

ANZ Bank New Zealand Limited (ANZ) is assisting ANZ customers to apply for a Direct Broking account to access FNZC's Direct Broking share and bond trading service.

As a requirement of opening a Direct Broking account, FNZC will open a Cash Management Trust (CMT) account for you. The CMT is used as your default settlement/funding account for securities trading, sale proceeds and purchase payments.

To submit orders into the markets provided by NZX, your security holdings must be registered to a Common Shareholder Number (CSN). CSNs are nine digits long, begin with the number 3 and must be in the full, legal names of the persons who own the securities. If you do not have a CSN, we will allocate one to the applicants.

If you already have a CSN, please write it here

If you have any existing security holdings which are not under a CSN, or if their existing registration details differ from their full legal names and registration address, please contact call 0800 805 777 for guidance.

SECTION 8. AUTHORISED REPRESENTATIVES

As part of your application, you can nominate Authorised Representatives to trade on your behalf and to deal with your investment in your CMT. Authorised Representatives are not account holders and can have any relationship to you.

Authorised Representatives are not authorised to make any changes to your account details. Direct Broking will accept instructions from any Authorised Representative or Account Holder without reference to the other Account Holders (if applicable), unless the Account Holders provide written instructions to the contrary.

Authorised Representatives are required to be identified in person as part of the application process. ANZ can arrange an appointment at an ANZ branch for this to be done, if required.

Authorised Representatives must sign below - they do not need to sign Section 9.
